COLORADO DISCLOSURE NOTICE: A NOTICE TO APPLICANTS

We at Habersham Funding LLC, a viatical and life settlement company, do hereby advise you that:

1. Individuals wishing to sell their policies may have alternatives to viatical or life settlements. These alternatives may include accelerated benefits offered by the issuer of the policy, loans secured by the policy, and surrender of the policy for cash value. You should obtain information from your insurance company or your financial advisors regarding the options available to you.
2. Some or all of the proceeds of a viatical or life settlement may be taxable under federal income tax and state franchise and income taxes. You should obtain tax advice from your attorney, financial advisor, accountant or tax advisor.
3. A viatical or life settlement may affect an individual's ability to receive supplemental social security income, public assistance and public medical services, including Medicaid. You should consult the organization responsible for providing these services.
4. The proceeds of a viatical or life settlement may be subject to claims from creditors, personal representatives, trustees in bankruptcy, and receivers in state or federal court.
5. As set forth in more detail in the viatical or life settlement contract, you have the unconditional right to rescind a viatical or life settlement contract within thirty (30) calendar days after it is executed by all parties or fifteen (15) calendar days after receiving the settlement proceeds, whichever is earlier (the "Rescission Period"). Rescission, if exercised, is only effective if both notice of the rescission is given within the Rescission Period and repayment of all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the viatical settlement provider is made within forty-five days after the end of the Rescission Period. If the insured under the policy dies during the rescission period, the settlement contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded, subject to the repayment of all viatical settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans and loan interest to the viatical settlement provider.
6. The Net Purchase Price will be disbursed by the Escrow Agent to the viator to complete a purchase of the Policy pursuant to the terms of the Escrow Agreement with three (3) business days after all of the following have occurred: (a) receipt by the Escrow Agent of the originals of fully executed copies of all forms or written authorizations necessary to effect a change in both the beneficiary designation and the ownership of the Policy as contemplated by the Life Insurance Policy Purchase and Sale Agreement; (b) receipt by the Escrow Agent of an assignment by the applicable insurance company which accepts and recognizes Purchaser, its agents, designees or assigns, as the owner, and beneficiary of the Policy; (c) verification by the Escrow Agent of other material information to verify the accuracy of the Policy as set forth in the Escrow Agreement; and (d) confirmation by the Escrow Agent that all closing conditions contained in the Life Insurance Purchase and Sale Agreement have been met.
7. Entering into a viatical settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy or certificate, to be forfeited by the viator. You should consult with your financial advisor.
8. Selling your insurance policy will result in the loss of all of the death benefit payable to the current beneficiary(ies) under the policy.
9. If the policy which is the subject of a viatical or life settlement is a joint policy, or contains riders or other provisions insuring the lives of a spouse, dependents, or anyone else other than the viator or life settlor, there may be a possible loss of coverage.
10. In addition to these disclosures you will receive a copy of a brochure, approved by the Commissioner of the Colorado Department Insurance, describing the viatical and life settlement process.

Initial _____ Date _____

11. All medical, financial or personal information solicited or obtained by a viatical settlement provider or viatical settlement producer about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or significant other, may be disclosed as necessary to effect the viatical settlement between the viator and the viatical settlement provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase.
12. The insured may be contacted by either the viatical settlement provider or viatical settlement producer or its authorized representative for the purpose of determining the insured's health status. This contact is limited to once per year if the insured has a life expectancy of more than two years, once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less.
13. You should contact your attorney, accountant, estate planner, financial planning advisor, their insurer, insurance agent, tax advisor, or social services agency regarding potential consequences resulting from entering into a viatical or life settlement.
