DISCLOSURE NOTICE: A NOTICE TO APPLICANTS

We at Habersham Funding LLC, a viatical settlement company, do hereby advise you that:

1. Individuals wishing to sell their policies have alternatives to viatical settlements. These alternatives may include accelerated benefits offered by the issuer of the policy, loans secured by the policy, and surrender of the policy for cash value. You should obtain information from your insurance company or your financial and legal advisors regarding the options available to you.
2. Some or all of the proceeds from a viatical settlement may be subject to federal income taxation and state franchise and income taxation. You should seek assistance from a professional tax advisor.
3. A viatical settlement may adversely affect an individual's ability to receive supplemental social security income, public assistance and public medical services, including Medicaid and other government benefits and entitlements. You should consult the governmental organization responsible for providing these services.
4. The proceeds of a viatical settlement may be subject to claims of creditors, personal representatives, trustees in bankruptcy, and receivers in state or federal court.
5. If the policy which is the subject of a viatical settlement is a joint policy, or contains family riders or other provisions insuring the lives of a spouse, dependents, or anyone else other than the viator, there may be a loss of coverage. You should consult your insurance producer or the issuer of the policy for advice.
6. Entering into a viatical settlement contract will have an effect on payment of premiums and dispositions of proceeds, cash values, and dividends, and may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy, to be forfeited by the individual. You should seek assistance from your financial advisor.
7. All medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a viatical settlement company or viatical settlement broker about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse, or a significant other may be disclosed as necessary to effect the viatical settlement between the viator and the viatical settlement provider and/or financing entities. The information will be shared with the insurer that issued the life insurance policy being sold and may also be provided to viatical settlement purchasers, special purpose entities, or related provider trusts. If you are asked to provide medical, financial or personal information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure and any failure to consent may affect your ability to viaticate the life insurance policy. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.
8. You should contact your attorney, accountant, estate planner, financial planning advisor, insurer, insurance agent, tax advisor, or social services agency regarding potential consequences resulting from entering into a viatical settlement before you enter into a viatical settlement contract.
9. The insured may be contacted by the Purchaser or its authorized representative or designees for the purpose of determining the insured's health status. Such contacts shall be limited to once every three months for insureds with a life expectancy of more than one year and to no more than once per month for insureds with a life expectancy of one year or less. These limitations shall not apply to any contacts with the insured for any reasons other than determining the insured's health status.
10. You have the unconditional right to rescind a viatical settlement contract for thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the viatical settlement contract, and at least fifteen (15) calendar days from the receipt of the viatical settlement proceeds by the viator. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the viatical settlement contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded, subject to repayment to the Purchaser of all amounts paid by Purchaser in connection with the settlement.

DISCLOSURE NOTICE:

11. Funds will be sent to the viator within three (3) business days after the Purchaser has received the insurer's or group administrator's acknowledgement that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated pursuant to the viatical settlement contract.
12. There is no affiliation between the Purchaser and the issuer of the life insurance policy being sold.
13. The current death benefit under the policy or certificate is $_____. (If known) additional guaranteed benefits are $_____ and the amount of the accidental death and dismemberment benefits are $_____. By selling the policy, you are transferring all rights to these benefits except any benefits for accidental death and dismemberment, to the Purchaser.
14. The Purchaser is Habersham Funding, LLC; a licensed viatical settlement provider located at Building 11, Piedmont Center, 3495 Piedmont Road NE, Suite 910, Atlanta, Georgia 30305, Telephone: 404-233-8275.
15. The independent third-party escrow agent for the settlement transaction is Mills Potoczak & Company, CPA an Ohio professional corporation located at the following address: 27600 Chagrin Boulevard, Suite 200, Cleveland, Ohio 44122, telephone number: 216-464-7481 (the "Escrow Agent"). A copy of the relevant escrow and trust agreements or documents are available to you for inspection and may be found under Exhibit L of the Life Insurance Policy Purchase and Sale Agreement.
16. The Purchaser does not set or determine compensation for any viatical settlement broker involved in this transaction, and such compensation is determined in the sole discretion of the viatical settlement broker. The viatical settlement broker is not affiliated with, or an agent of, the Purchaser in this transaction. Under the law of certain states, the viatical settlement broker has statutorily defined duties to the owner of an insurance policy, and both the owner and the insured acknowledge that they have been advised of this fact. If you have questions about the compensation received by the viatical settlement broker in this transaction, you should contact your agent or the viatical settlement broker.
