- Representations, acknowledgements and warranties –be sure to read thoroughly and sign the application, including this section.
- Disclosure Notice – information that is important to know if you are considering a life settlement.

DISCLOSURE NOTICE: A NOTICE TO APPLICANTS

We at Habersham Funding LLC, a life settlement company, do hereby advise you that:

1. Individuals wishing to sell their policies may have alternatives to life settlements. These alternatives may include accelerated benefits offered by the issuer of the policy, loans secured by the policy, and surrender of the policy for cash value. You should obtain information from your insurance company or your financial advisors regarding the options available to you.
2. Some or all of the proceeds of the life settlement may be taxable under federal income tax and state franchise and income taxes, and assistance should be sought from a professional tax advisor.
3. Receipt of the proceeds of a life settlement may affect an individual's ability to receive supplemental social security income, public assistance and public medical services, including Medicaid, or other governmental benefits or entitlements. You should consult the governmental organization responsible for providing these services.
4. The proceeds of a life settlement could be subject to the claims of creditors, personal representatives, trustees in bankruptcy, and receivers in state or federal court.
5. One consequence of selling your insurance policy will be the loss of some or all of the death benefit payable to the current beneficiary(ies).
6. If the policy which is the subject of a life settlement is a joint policy, or contains riders or other provisions insuring the lives of a spouse, dependents, or anyone else other than the viator or life settlor, there may be a possible loss of coverage.
7. Entering into a life settlement contract will have an effect on payment of premiums and dispositions of proceeds, cash values, and dividends, and may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy, to be forfeited by the individual.
8. You acknowledge that you have received a copy of the National Association of Insurance Commissioner's life settlement brochure that describes the process of life settlements.
9. Proceeds from the sale of your policy will be sent to you within three (3) business days after we have confirmed that all conditions contained in the life insurance purchase and sale agreement have been met, and we have received a valid and effective acknowledgement from the insurance company acknowledging that the owner and beneficiary of your policy have been transferred.
10. You have the right to rescind on or before fifteen (15) calendar days (the "Rescission Period") from receipt of the life settlement proceeds. In order to rescind within the Rescission Period, you must provide written notice to us of your decision to rescind and you must return to us within the Rescission Period the full amount of the settlement proceeds, plus premiums, loans, or other consideration, if any, paid by us during the Rescission Period. We will assign the policy back to you immediately upon receipt of the full amount of the life settlement proceeds. If you die during the Rescission Period, subject to repayment of all sums noted in this section, your life settlement contract shall be deemed to be rescinded.
11. The insured person under the policy may be contacted by us, our agent or other authorized representative for the purpose of determining the insured's health status. This contact is limited to once every three (3) months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one (1) year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one (1) year or less.
12. All medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a provider or broker about an insured, including Insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or a significant other may be disclosed as necessary to effect the sale of the Policy by Viator to the Purchaser. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the Policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.

13. You should contact an attorney, accountant, estate planner, financial planning advisor, the insurer, insurance agent, tax advisor, or social services agency regarding potential consequences resulting from entering into a life settlement.
